Changing the Face of Medicine provides profiles of over 300 women who have influenced and enhanced the practice of medicine.

Circulating Now, the blog of the NLM’s History Division, explores a wide range of historical topics as they relate to materials in the NLM collections.

NLM Digital Collections offers thousands of biomedical books, images, maps, and videos. All of the content in Digital Collections is freely available worldwide and, unless otherwise indicated, in the public domain.

MedlinePlus provides extensive information from NIH and other trusted sources on more than 1,000 diseases and conditions in English and Spanish.

PubMed Central is a free full-text digital archive of biomedical and life sciences journal literature. It contains more than three million articles reaching back over two centuries.

Profiles in Science contains published and unpublished materials, including manuscripts, diaries, laboratory notebooks, correspondence, photographs, poems, drawings, and audiovisual resources from biomedical and public health leaders.